Dear Parents/ Guardians,

Our Biblical worldview theme for the 3rd term is:

Gal 5:22 But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness.

God is peaceful and He brings us joy. This is something that is missing in the world today. South Africans are 'angry' people, they say. Violent crime has reached frightening proportions. Road rage seems to be the norm.

Yet, scripture teaches that man redeemed by Jesus is restored to harmony as members of God's new family.

May we strive to this higher 'calling', rather than settle for mediocrity .

It was a chilly start to Spring. The reason for last week's civvies day was two-fold. To herald the beginning of Spring as well as teach the children about caring and sharing with those less fortunate.

We would like to support Scripture Union, as we did last year, by collecting toiletries for their Froggy Pond camps which takes place annually.

Thank you to those who brought in a donation. Should you still wish to send in a donation, please feel free to deliver to the office. Every little bit helps!

CHRONIC LATE COMING (GRADE 1 - 4)

The schools formal learning programme commences at 08h00. Whilst we understand there may be reasons such as bad weather, load shedding, etc, we cannot condone habitual late-coming. This has a negative impact on the class's activities for the rest of the day. The teacher has to start - stop - start the lesson; the rest of the class is disturbed with someone coming in, putting down their bag and then moving to their seat. This can happen as often as three times depending on the number of children arriving late.

Children who arrive after the bell has been rung must report to the office first and then will be taken to their respective classrooms.

We appeal to all to be punctual in order to alleviate this unnecessary waste of valuable time.

CRAFT MARKET

Our Craft Market is our biggest fundraiser of the year! Accompanying this newsletter is all the information regarding our 2015 Craft Market which takes place on 31 October 2015. Please read these notices carefully as your assistance in this regard is vital and will be greatly appreciated!
